REPUBLIKA SLOVENIJA

STATISTIČNI URAD REPUBLIKE SLOVENIJE

Population, Slovenia, 1 July 2011 - final data

Friday, October 28, 2011, First Release

In mid-2011 Slovenia had a population of 2,052,496. In the second quarter of this year the population increased by 0.1 %.

More citizens of Slovenia and more foreigners

In the second quarter of 2011 the number of citizens of Slovenia increased, as did the number of foreign citizens. The largest increase was registered among foreign women (by 2.1%), while the number of men in this population group increased only slightly. In total, foreign citizens represented 4.1% of Slovenia's population.

102 women per 100 men

The shares of women among total population and among citizens of Slovenia have not changed since the beginning of 2010 (50.5% and 51.4% respectively). Among foreign citizens, however, the ratio between men and women has been changing quite rapidly. In the second quarter of 2011 the share of women among foreigners increased for the ninth consecutive time, to 29.8%.
